Students wishing to purchase Tennessee tickets may purchase two tickets Monday, Oct. 17, by presenting both ID card and registration receipt.

Howdy!

My name is Charlene Wilson. I am a secretary. I enjoy my work because I'm around some of the craziest people at UK. My job—I handle things at the School of Journalism. But today I just didn't want my picture taken and I wouldn't smile for the photographer. (Note: This was one of the few times we haven't seen Charlene with a big smile and an always friendly attitude.)

Newly Elected Cheerleaders

Motion Fails To "Open Up" Greek Rush

A motion to "open up" the current informal rush to permit more men to sign up for it failed at the Interfraternity Council meeting last week.

Limited to those men who signed up for the recent formal rush but did not pledge a fraternity, the informal rush began Oct. 5 and will continue through Oct. 12.

There are 134 men eligible to be pledged during the IFC's week of informal rush. All fraternities that did not pledge the 30-man quota during formal rush are eligible to participate in the current informal rush.

At the last meeting several IFC delegates stated that because so few men signed up for the recent formal rush, it was urgent that more men be permitted to register for the informal rush period.

Opponents of opening up of informal rush said that doing so would wreck the formal rush program.

The motion to permit more men to sign up for the current rush program failed in a roll call vote of fraternities.

IFC President Charles English pointed out that fraternities which have 25 actives or less (including pledges eligible to be initiated) after the informal rush may rush for an additional 60 days.

The IFC made this provision last year in an attempt to increase the numbers in the smaller fraternities.

During informal rush, a fraternity may pledge a man by securing a pledge card from the Dean of Men's office and having it properly signed.

Keeneland Hall To Be Dedicated October 17

Keeneland Hall, girls' dormitory, will have its formal opening and dedication Oct. 17. There will be a short dedicatory program, for which the plans have not yet been completed, and also a reception from 3-5 p.m.

The reception at the dorm is primarily for the public. On Sunday, Oct. 23, there will be an open house designed for the students and faculty on campus.

Leadership Conference Opens Tonight At Camp Daniel Boone

Parking Lots Now Open

The construction of four new parking lots on campus will accommodate more than 600 cars. Two of the parking lots are already in operation and have space for approximately 250 cars.

The largest lot in operation will handle 200 cars and is located at Rose St. and Washington Ave. in front of Donovan Hall. The smaller lot is located at Hilltop and Boone Alley, and will take care of 50 cars. Another parking lot which will accommodate about 50 cars is almost ready. Its location is at the rear of the University Training School.

The largest lot will be at the site of the old Scott St. Barracks. It will have a 300 car capacity. The construction of this lot would have been completed except for a delay in removing lumber and rubble from the old barracks which were razed.

Other lots may be built later, but there are no immediate plans for more, Dr. Donovan said.

The cost of the four lots will be around $28,000.

Transylvania President To Give First Address

Dr. Frank Rose, president of Transylvania College, will open the Leadership Conference tonight. He is addressing the group on "An Approach to Leadership."

UK Bar Association Announces Celebration

The Student Bar Association of the UK College of Law participated in the celebration of the 100th Anniversary of Chief Justice Marshall by sponsoring a program presented Monday in Lafferty Hall.

"Decision for Justice", a film dramatization of the first big case Marshall decided as Chief Justice in 1803, was shown. Dean Elvis J. Stahr gave a talk on the life of John Marshall.

The program staged by the Kentucky Association was in response to the request made by the President at that time that governors, mayors, and student bar associations throughout the country plan civic programs commemorating the anniversary.

Buses to take the delegates to Camp Daniel Boone, YMCA camp near Lexington, are leaving the SUB at 2:30 p.m. and 4 p.m. today.

Speakers for the conference include Dr. R. W. Bishop, dean of men from the University of Cincinnati, speaking on the "Techniques of Leadership," and Dr. Earl Kauffman of the UK Physical Education Department who will give the final talk Sunday. Mr. Sherrell Wilkes, also from the University of Cincinnati is to conduct a session on parliamentary procedure.

After each speech the delegates will divide up into groups and discuss the speech and its relation to the UK campus. Student moderators will guide the discussions. They are Jane Perkins, Ruth Lewis, Betty Jo Fritz, Ellis Easterly, Ann Young, Inez Toohey, and Paul Eggum.

Foreign Service Agent To Be Here Thursday

Mr. W. M. Southworth, representative of the Personnel Division, will speak to students on opportunities available in the Foreign Service at 2 p.m., Oct. 13, in Room 129 of the Social Science Building.

He will also hold discussions with anyone interested in this field.

Approximately 300 new officers will be appointed in the Foreign Service this year. They will fill posts in 77 different countries.

These jobs range from reporting political and economic conditions to communications and cryptography work.

Candidates for work in the Foreign Office must take a four-part examination that consists of tests in English expression, general ability, general background, and modern languages. The next written examination will be given in 65 cities, on Dec. 9, 1955.

To be eligible for this work, the applicant should be at least 20 and under 31, a citizen of the United States for at least 10 years, and, if married, married to an American citizen.

A subsequent oral examination, given by a traveling board meeting in regional centers must be passed by those successful in the written tests.

Beginning salaries for Foreign Service Officers range from $4400 to $5500, depending on age and experience. Additional benefits include insurance, annual and sick leave, and a retirement plan.

Army ROTC Rated High At Camp

Competing with leading colleges of six states, students of the UK Army ROTC placed highest in training ratings at summer camp held at Ft. Campbell, Ky.

Of 43 cadets from the University, 14 placed in the first quartile and only one placed in the fourth and lowest quartile. Col. Henry H. Roberts, professor of military science, stated.

The 56.9 per cent of UK men in the first quartile represented the highest percentage of students in that division. (A quartile represents one-fourth of the total number of men from all schools.)

The 29 schools represented at Ft. Campbell were from Kentucky, Michigan, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, and West Virginia.

The basis for the ratings at camp is divided into academic and practical phases. The ratings of the academic phase are based on 12 tests, valued at 100 points each. The practical phase ratings are based on leadership abilities, exercise of command, marksmanship, etc.

School ratings are determined by averaging the scores made on tests by each major from a particular school. The UK students averaged 841 points compared to 732 averaged by the University of Michigan, the lowest rated school.

Cadets from all colleges are placed in training companies alphabetically, consequently cadets from any one school will not necessarily serve with other cadets from the same school.

Ray Callahan, senior education major, and a member of the UK varsity football team was rated highest of the men from the University.

The 24 men from the University in the first quartile were K. R. Callahan, J. D. Chenault III, J. D. Baxter, D. A. Lawhorn, W. A. Steinhauser, W. K. Lutz, J. Judge, T. G. Brabant, F. G. Cox, J. M. Hall Jr., W. G. Moody, J. D. Crutcher, C. V. Meyer, R. C. Ward, L. B. Aicken, T. L. Preston, F. L. Reeves, J. E. Ward, J. L. Heaberlin, P. C. Bayruns, C. D. Congleton, R. N. Lee, M. E. ## HURRAY FOR THE RED, WHITE AND GOLD

There's a new package on Philip Morris Cigarettes. It's red and white and gold and pretty as a picture. You'd never guess that behind anything so bright and cheerful is a saga packed with action and passion, with love and romance and not a few tears.

It started quietly enough. The makers of gentle Philip Morris, as half a bunch of fellows as you ever clapped your eyes upon, got to talking last summer during their annual outing on Attu, a secluded and unspoiled island, often called "The Capri of Alaska." Capri, on the other hand, is often called "The Attu of Italy."

But I digress. I was saying that the makers of Philip Morris, Jim-dandy fellows every man-jack of them, got to talking on their last outing. "Don't you think," said one maker to the other makers, "that our brown Philip Morris package, though in many ways terribly fetching, doesn't quite reflect the basic quality of today's Philip Morris—its happy gentleness, its jolly lightness?"

"Why, yes," replied the other makers to the first maker, "we do think that our brown Philip Morris package, though in many ways terribly fetching, doesn't quite reflect the basic quality of today's Philip Morris—its happy gentleness, its jolly lightness."

"Let us have the pack re-designed!" suggested the first maker, whose name is Laughing Ned.

"Yes, let us!" cried the other makers, whose name is Fun-Loving Tom. "Let us! Let us! Let us!"

The makers forthwith engaged the prominent firm of package re-designers, Sigafoos and Associates. It was with full confidence that the makers entrusted the task to Sigafoos and Associates, for Sterling Sigafoos, the senior member, is known the length and breadth of the world as "The Grand Old Man of Package Re-designing," and his partner, Fred Associates, though a younger man, is everywhere regarded as a comer.

Sigafoos and Associates began their job by conducting interviews from coast to coast to determine what kind of pack people wanted for Philip Morris. The partners could not do the interviewing themselves—Sigafoos because of his advanced years; Associates because he is subject to motion sickness—so they sent our two trusted employees: Mr. Walker Nyle (Yale '51) and Miss Felicia Sigafoos (Radcliffe '52), daughter of the senior partner. After canvassing the entire nation and tabulating more than 90 million interviews, Mr. Nyle sent the following communiqué to the home office:

"Dear Dad and Associates,

I call you Dad because Miss Sigafoos and I discovered during our long and exhaustive survey that never were two people so admirably suited. We have accordingly been married and have accepted a position with the United States Government keeping the lighthouse off Gay Head, Martha's Vineyard.

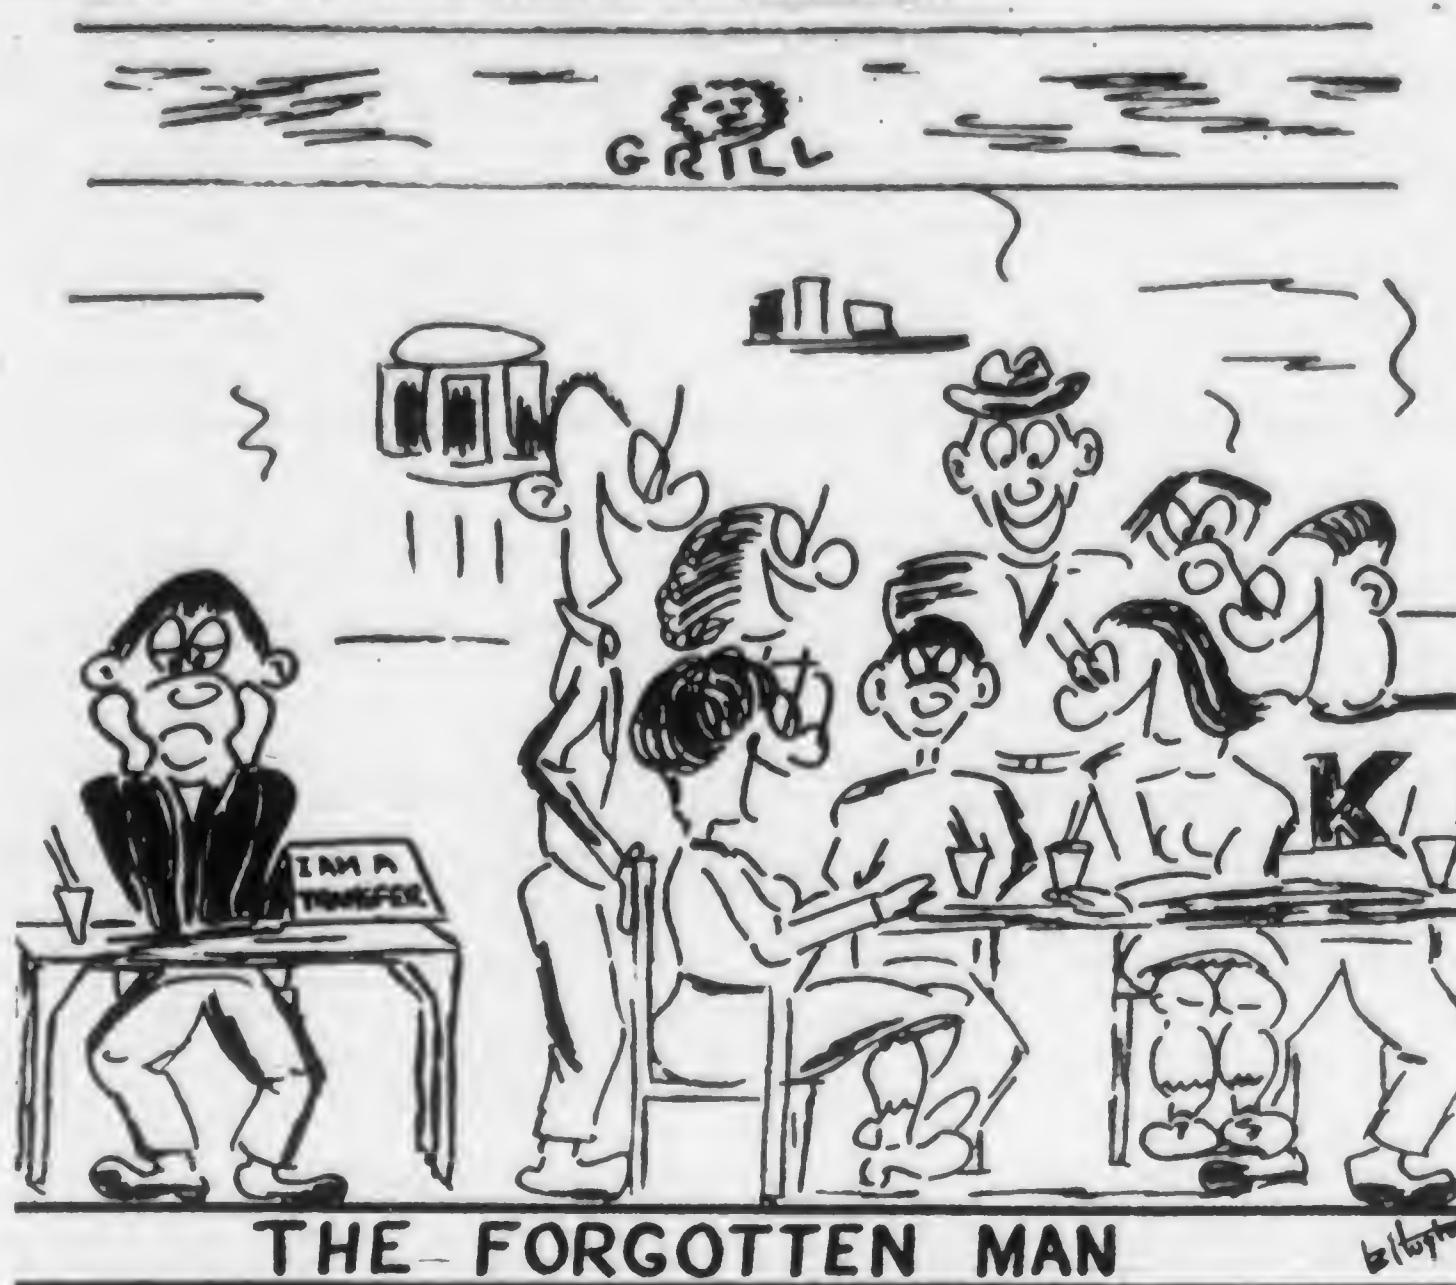

I hope you are not too upset by this news. May I suggest you look at it this way: you haven't lost a daughter; you've gained a beacon.

Sincerely,

Walker Nyle"

Well sir, old Sigafoos fumed for a while, but at last he calmed down and went to visit the newlyweds in their lighthouse, bringing them a suitcase full of twenties as a wedding gift. It was there he learned that people want Philip Morris in the red, white, and gold package, which you are now, I trust, holding in your very own hand.

The makers of PHILIP MORRIS who bring you this column beg to remind you that for a while you'll still be seeing Philip Morris both ways—in the bright new red, white and gold package, and in the friendly familiar brown.

The Forgotten Men

(This editorial was submitted by a student who wishes to have his name withheld.)

The forgotten man on the UK campus is the transfer student—at least socially.

There is a natural enough assumption by the administrators and student leaders of social organizations that the transferee has reached a stage in his college life where he is able to look out for himself—in contrast with freshmen who need some help.

This assumption is true*so far as it goes, but it carries with it an assumption that the new upperclassmen have all the natural advantages of the freshmen. At least at UK this is not quite true.

There is a distinct social advantage to the dormitory life required of freshmen which is denied the transferring sophomore, junior or senior.

The contacts to be made in a private off-campus home housing anywhere from 1 to 15 or 20 boys or girls, most of whom are already moving in their own set patterns; or who are devoting most of their time to a final studious year of law or engineering are far less conducive to rapid assimilation into the UK social life than the freshmen's relatively limitless contacts and meetings.

The lone party designed for transfers staged during the first week left much to be desired.

It was, frankly, a rather drab affair. Punchbowls, coke trays, and polite little conversational groups are not precisely what is needed to solve the transfer student's problem, whatever its importance.

Possibly some group will, in the September to come, devote some part of its effort to putting on a livelier, longer, more imaginative ice breaking social event for transfer students in order that they may feel a little less forgotten and more at home here at the University.

Keeneland Hall

An irate Lexingtonian wrote a scorching letter to the Courier-Journal early this week denouncing the University for naming the new women's dormitory, Keeneland Hall.

The angry gentleman, Mr. Harry Best, declared that all reputable colleges would be dismayed to learn that a school would "sink so low" as to name a building after a gambling concern.

Mr. Best also deplored the presence of Bluegrass farms, thoroughbred horses, and all other little trifles that happen to be connected with horse racing.

In addition Mr. Best said that Keeneland contributed very little money to the construction of the dormitory, and implied that the morals of all the young ladies living in Keeneland would probably be corrupted because of the name.

For Mr. Best's information the money was contributed by the Keeneland Foundation not Keeneland Race Track. The Foundation does get its funds from the track but that's the only connection it has with it. The Foundation is a non-profit charitable organization.

Also the Foundation contributed $200,000 to the University for building Keeneland Hall. By anybody's standards this is a large donation. How Mr. Best could call $200,000 insignificant is beyond conception.

Besides the dormitory grant the Foundation has given the University through the years approximately $300,000. Anybody who backs the University to the extent of a half million dollars deserves some recognition.

Keene is also an honored name in Kentucky history. The Keene family has been important to Kentucky since pioneer days.

Mr. Best is completely off base in his attack on the University. Let's not bite the hand that feeds us.

The inauguration of a Student Council for the men's dorms is a step long needed by the University. Self government has proved itself to be desirable in educational institutions, but probably no other phase of college life needs a student governing body more than men's and women's residence halls.

Our Readers Speak

Last week the Kernel published an article which in essence said two things about the Student Government Association.

1. The SGA relies too much upon investigating committees. The article used for an example the husband-wife student ticket problem.

2. The SGA committees should turn in written reports rather than verbal reports.

In regards to the last suggestion, I am in wholehearted agreement. Upon re-reading the SGA constitution, I find that this is a constitutional requirement. At this point I want to thank the Kernel for bringing to light the places where SGA has become slack.

In regards to the investigating committee, I find that it is a very necessary and useful part of the Student Government Association. Let me use the husband-wife ticket situation for an example. Here is the problem as quoted from the Sept. 30, Kernel: ". . . a delegate from the College of Engineering reported a complaint from one of his constituents. According to the complaint it is possible for a student husband to buy special rate athletic tickets for his wife, but not for a student wife to buy the same kind of tickets for her husband."

The investigating committee was appointed to make sure that the Assembly had all the facts before it took any action. It would be foolish for the Assembly to take action without being certain it thoroughly knew the problem.

I agree with the Kernel that some important matters of business have died in the hands of investigating committees, but it is my duty as president and the duty of the Assembly members to see that these matters are kept alive. When we fail in this duty, we should be openly criticized.

I am sure that most of us in the Student Government Association were provoked at the editorial headline which stated that SGA was lazy. But whether we agreed with it or not, I'm sure it will make us more efficient in the future. For that same reason I want to make a statement which I hope will prompt some action.

If the Student Body agrees with The Kentucky Kernel that SGA is lazy, then the Student Body must remember that SGA is a small group representing the attitude of the campus as a whole. This fact is proven by the small percentage of students who vote in SGA elections. It is proven by the students who continually complain about the parking situation and yet never voice their opinions at the Student Government meetings. It is proven much more by the absence of students at SGA meetings, students who are not interested enough to find out how their own governmental system really operates. We call ourselves "citizens of tomorrow" but we don't know how to be citizens of today.

The next meeting of SGA will be on Monday, Oct. 10, at 7 o'clock in the Student Union Building. Every student on campus is invited to attend that meeting.

Don Whitehouse, President
Student Government Assoc.

(Editor's Note—The Kentucky Kernel fully supports Student Government Association. The Kernel believes that SGA is workable and beneficial. The fact that the Kernel editorial criticized some parts of the SGA structure does not mean that the paper condemns the organization as a whole. Mr. Whitehouse's response to last week's editorial is not only sincere, but also encouraging. Even the best can be made a little better. That is the Kernel's hope for SGA this year.)

Alumni Criticism

In all the years I attended the University I never wrote a letter to the editor or complained of anything there, but I have to write now when I see how nicely the Student Government Association is handling the parking problem.

They aren't making the penalty stiff enough for illegal parking or unauthorized driving. Certainly those big time legislators in SGA must realize the value of capital punishment, or at least prison terms of some sort. We had better hope our cities and towns don't follow the lead of SGA or it will make it prohibitive for anyone to drive a car lest he forget and park where it is verboten.

Hats off to SGA. I'm for them 100%—if you have a little power use it, its made many people feel good, Hitler, Stalin, Mussolini, etc.

I plan to attend some football games this fall and would appreciate it if you would advise me just where I can get my visas or other necessary papers to enter upon the sanctified territory of SGA.

Jack Howell, '53

(Editor's Note—SGA has no authority to enact new rules. This was done by the Board of Trustees.)

The Workshop

By RAY HORNBACK

There's a saying—take a lesson from the whale: the only time he gets harpooned is when he comes up to spout.

Well ready your harpoons, 'cause I'm about to sprit off on an action which appears to be a great injustice to an old American custom.

Not too long ago, a California university dean of students stepped in to stop a strip-tease artist from performing at a student show.

Said the dean, "This type of program is not in keeping with the dignity of an educational institution."

Now hold it there deanie . . . don't you think you're going just a little too far? We admit that possibly the buxom young lady may have been going a little too far, but we don't quite go along with your "not in keeping with the dignity" bit.

Modern educators constantly scream for a broad education. And that's exactly what the smog-laden Californians were getting.

We see no great distinction between a lively little strip number and art models appearing in the nude, and nude statues brazenly displayed on college campuses everywhere.

Why should a stripper so full of life, so unwrapped up in her work, and so sincere in her attempt to show the world her talents be declared undignified?

Girl Of "Seventeen" Here On UK Campus

"Seventeen, seventeen!

"Cool and solid seventeen.

"Young enough to dance and sing . . ."

To all you campus cats who have bounced to this new hit tune, did you know the subject of the song was right here on the UK campus?

Excluding the fact that she's 18 now, just about everything else still applies. Her name is Charlotte Young, a freshman from Louisville, and she's still young enough to dance and sing and old enough to get that swing.

It all started when Charlotte's father, John F. Young, Jr., who wrote the song, got the idea from observing teen-agers and his daughter in particular. Realizing that there had never been a song about these young exuberants, Young got a friend of his named Chuck Gorman to write the lyrics while he wrote the music. Needless to say, with Boyd Bennett and his Rockets recording, they hit the jackpot.

However, that doesn't close the chapter on Charlotte's connection with song writing. Her boy friend is the subject of "Flat-top," which is the male sequel to "Seventeen." This came about when Bennett asked Young to write a song about the typical teen-age boy.

Mrs. Young said that was impossible, but Mr. Young didn't think so. He wrote both the music and lyrics to "Flat-top," had it recorded by Bennett, and is now waiting for it to come to the top.

Charlotte says her father, who is in the real estate business in Louisville, writes his songs on inspiration only. She recalls once when he leapt out of bed in the middle of the night to put down on paper one of his brainstorms.

The five-foot-four medical technology major is the third in her family to attend the University. Her aher graduated with a commerce degree and her mother was studying the same thing before she left school to be married.

Although Young has been connected with music for a long time, he has never had a lesson in his life. While at UK he played in the band, and upon graduating was the leader of several combos.

stripper must have gone through. If she had been a hula dancer, maybe she could have shaken it off. But not our art-minded stripper.

With an anguish filled heart and a scantily clad body, she weaved out of the California institute—never to be seen again by the culturally inclined students who had gathered to share in her message to the world.

She packed—briefly—and headed for points unknown. Rumors have it that she ended up in the strip mines of Kentucky, but that appears highly improbable as the area is much to coal for the scantily clad little lady.

At this point, we begin to wonder who was right. Was the dean's declaration unfair? Were the California students deprived of their rights? Was the young lady stripped of her rights in accordance with her apparel?

These are touchy questions. It's a touchy problem. But in all fairness, it seems the young dancer did not get a fair shake.

There are many constructive actions which we as students can take to help the art-minded California coed. At the present however, I can think of none of these actions.

If you have any suggestions, let me know. In the meantime, I'll be looking for the little gal.

Around The Turntable

By JOHN ALEXANDER

We warned you! This week four Lads' "Moments to Remember" placed ninth across the nation. A ballad beamed straight at the college crowd, it has found its place! Incidentally, "Suddenly There's A Valley" placed 11th, and "Shifting Sands" 13th.

This past week, Lexington played host to the premier of its very own, and brand new record company, Mifanda Records. Ben Ali Theater was host to the first hearing of "Ootsie Bootsie Cootsie," a rather catchy tune voicing the opinions of a child welcoming a brand new brother, and the back-side rock 'n' roll, "How Could I Fail For You." Vocals are by Lambie Penn, 11 year old star from Danville, Va., and rock backings by Stu Bruner.

Mitch Miller has forthcoming, on Columbia, a brand new tune of the Confederacy, "The Bonnie Blue Gal." Borrowing the music of the "Bonnie Blue Flag" and adding a new set of lyrics, it could quite easily furnish Miller another hit.

Of course, both this tune and "Yellow Rose" have their origin in the Columbia Masterworks Album, "The Confederacy."

And speaking of tunes with a striking likeness, we contend that the Spanish "El Relicario" was written somewhat prior to Bunny Paul's "Take A Chance."

Seeing as how "Seventeen" has been listed for the past nine weeks, and "My Boy Flattop" is bound that way, it may be in order to mention that Boyd Bennett's style (and this is quite obvious) is copied directly from that of Bill Haley.

Bennett has been a vocalist in the band business for several years, only recently starting out on his own. After not faring so well as a straight vocalist, he came up with this combo playing R & B, and now drives a Cadillac.

Big Jim Mauzy handles the vocals on the rhythm sides. And while we're pointing accusing fingers, check music sometime against the old standard, "Five Foot Two."

Adding to the new tunes list, Stan Freberg's "Yellow Rose" (featuring Yankee Snare Drumming by Alvin Stoller) is cute, but the backside, "Rock Around Steven Foster," is much wittier.

Add these to the list of tunes breaking wide open: Four Freshmen, "Day By Day;" Joni James, "You Are My Love;" Frankie Laine, "Hawk-eye;" and King Cole's, "Someone You Love."

Now, here's the current top ten: "Yellow Rose of Texas," Mitch Miller; "Ain't That A Shame," Pat Boone; "Love Is A Many Splendored Thing," Four Aces; "Seventeen," Boyd Bennett; "Autumn Leaves," Roger Williams; "Wake the Town," Mindy Carson; "Bible Tells Me So," Don Cornell; "Rock Around The Clock," Bill Haley; "Moments to Remember," Four Lads; and "Maybelline," Chuck Berry, on Chess 1604 (wonder what this would sound like with Ezio Finza and the NBC Symphony?).

Luckies taste better for a hatful of reasons. First of all, Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that thar tobacco is toasted. A tour through the Blue Grass was just part of the program for the foreign extension agents visiting the UK campus recently.

The group visited the Whitney farm and Spendthrift, which is one of the largest homes for fine stallions. Santa Gertrudis cattle were the main attraction at the King Ranch farm.

Today the group has gone to Marion County, Ky., to study the farm and home development program as organized by that county. Accompanying the group as technical leaders will be Dean Horlacher and Carl Jones of the 4-H Club.

Eskimo To Visit Here Next Week

A Point Barrow Eskimo, Guy Okakok, will visit the UK campus the week of Oct. 10-15.

He is coming here under the sponsorship of the Geography, Sociology and Anthropology Departments. "Societies Around The World" students are to hear him lecturing on the culture and civilization of the Eskimo people.

An exhibition, including a speech and films of Alaska, will be held Saturday, Oct. 15, in the Student Union Building. Students may watch him demonstrate hunting skills, and after the speech, ask questions. This is to be sponsored by the Lexington Kiwanis Club, in cooperation with the University.

Moot Court Contests

Associate Justice Stanley Reed of the United States Supreme Court has been invited by the Court of Appeals to be a judge at the finals of the Moot Court Competition to be held in Frankfort on Oct. 27. Other judges will be members of the Court of Appeals.

The inter-club winners of the UK College of Law will go to Frankfort on the 27th. The finalists will represent the University of Kentucky Law School at the regional competition in St. Louis in November.

The two most successful students in the Law Club competition in St. Louis will represent the College in the National Moot Court competition sponsored by the Association of the Bar of the City of New York in December.

Students arguing in the inter-club competitions are James Albert Jones and S. David Levy, Brandeis Club; William G. Mullins and Robert M. Short, Reed Club; C. Gibson Downing Jr. and Charles G. Wylie, Vinson Club; and Julian M. Carroll and James M. Todd, Rutledge Club.

The Reed Club will argue against Rutledge at 7 p.m. Oct. 20 at Lafferty Hall on Oct. 21, the Vinson Club will oppose Brandeis. Local lawyers and judges will determine the winners.

The first competition held in 1950, saw Kentucky win the regional at St. Louis and go to the semi-finals in the National Competition in New York.

In 1951, Kentucky again captured the regional and went to the quarter-finals in the national. For the third time Kentucky reached the final rounds in New York in 1954, a record equaled by only five law schools in the nation.

"I represent 30,000 people"

That's the population of the Mason City, Iowa, area where Jack MacAllister (Iowa U., '50) is Manager for Northwestern Bell Telephone Company. How would you like this kind of job?

"As Telephone Manager I represent Mason City to my company, and vice-versa. Among my customers are bankers, farmers, housewives, merchants . . . each with different questions and problems about telephone service. Through public information and good business office service, my people and I do our best to furnish the answers.

"My assignment calls for varied activities—sales, public relations, office supervision. One minute I'm describing a new construction program to a group of businessmen . . . the next explaining a new service to a rural customer.

"It's a job with lots of variety and responsibility, and I enjoy every day of it. My supervisor is 75 miles away," says Jack. "and that puts me pretty much on my own—which is the way I like it."*

Jack MacAllister graduated with a B.S. in Commerce and started with Northwestern Bell about five years ago. As Telephone Manager at the age of 28, he is typical of the many young men who are building careers in telephone work. Similar opportunities exist today with other Bell telephone companies . . . also with Bell Telephone Laboratories, Western Electric and Sandia Corporation. "Lincoln and the Bluegrass" latest work by William H. Townsend of Lexington, is due for November publication by the UK Press.

The book has been selected by the Civil War Book Club as its November book-of-the-month.

Mr. Townsend's book concerns Lincoln's interest in the Lexington area, the only part of the slaveholding South the president knew intimately. It deals with the cultural environment of Lexington, home of Lincoln's wife, its contemporary political leaders, and its slave auctions.

The impressions Lincoln received from his visits to the Bluegrass is said to have influenced his opinions on slavery and secession.

The dust cover for Mr. Townsend's new book was created by Janis K. Sternbergs, UK Art Department. The cover illustrates a slave auction at the Fayette County Courthouse about 1848 along with an 1851 view of Main Street from the Phoenix Hotel.

Additional books by Mr. Townsend are, "Abraham Lincoln, Defendant," "Lincoln the Litigant," and "Lincoln and Liquor." He has written numerous other articles and material on Lincoln.

"Lincoln and the Bluegrass" is the result of an earlier work by the author, "Lincoln and His Wife's Home Town." This earlier book was published in 1929. New sources of material made available in the past quarter century enabled Mr. Townsend to bring greater insight and clarity to this subject.

Coming from a Confederate family, William H. Townsend, began in his boyhood to collect Civil War materials. His first was a rusty cannon ball unearthed by a farmer digging post holes in a fence row. Young Townsend bought the relic for ten cents.

27 Teams Enter I-M Grid Play

By SCOOP WHITE
And BO GRIFFIN

The intramural football season began Tuesday night with 12 teams seeing action. Six teams had to wait until Wednesday night to begin their season.

Twenty-seven teams entered football this year with the squads being divided into five divisions—three fraternity and two independent.

Last year's champion, SAE, opened play in division 1 by defeating PKA 19-6. SAE scored on their first series of plays with Jim Baxter throwing a touchdown pass to Dick Page to climax the march in the third period, with Baxter leading the way. SAE moved to the PKA 20-yard line where he threw another touchdown pass to Page. PKA's only score came on a beautiful kickoff return by Tom Prather in which he ran through the entire SAE team. In the late moments of the game Baxter went over right guard for SAE's final score.

A long touchdown pass from Ronnie Bonnell to Al Hall provided the margin of victory as RS defeated ZBT 7-0. Another long scoring pass in the second half by RS was nullified by a holding penalty.

In a game between two defensive minded teams KA and ATO battled to a scoreless tie. Each team stopped drives of the other by intercepting passes. KA had a strong drive going near the end of the game but time ran out on them. The tight ATO defense stopped KA's passing attack but had trouble with their running game.

SN gave warning to their future opponents by downing a good PSK team 21-6. Dave Noyes was a thorn in PSK's side, scoring the first touchdown on a quarterback sneak and passing to Bobby Barlow for the second score. Ronnie Hood scored SN's third touchdown on a running play. PSK's only score came in the third quarter when Ronnie Gable ran around end for the touchdown.

The passing combination of Bill White to Ronnie King proved too much for TKE as SX opened its season with a 16-0 victory. On their first play from scrimmage White threw 40 yards to King for the score. He then passed to Don Williams for the extra point. SX scored a safety when King caught Tom White behind the goal.

PKT rolled to an easy 32-0 victory over FH. Their initial score came when Bob Schrier intercepted a FH pass and ran it back for a TD. Gene Neff scored twice, once on an end-around and another on a pass from Jim Collins and added an extra point on a pass from Tom Preston. Sticking to a ground attack, PKT added two more tallies when Marney Beard and Collins scored on line plunges. An extra point by Preston and a touchdown by Dorsey King were nullified because of roughness penalties.

In the first independent game of the season, Law School led by the hard running of Bob Trimble, defeated the Freshman A.C. 12-0. Trimble scored first on a line plunge in the opening quarter. In the final stanza Trimble scored on a plunge from two yards out.

Rock Crushers won a forfeit from Dorm II when the dorm team dropped out of competition.

Jim Arnold ran back two intercepted passes for touchdowns to lead Dorm I to a 20-0 victory over YMCA. Dorm I's other score came on a pass from Jim Gibson to Bob Charmoli.

In a wild passing game BSU came from behind to hand the Civil Engineers a 12-7 defeat. BSU scored first when Hutson Patton ran back an intercepted pass for a touchdown. CE came back strong in the second half and went ahead on a scoring run by Steve Logan. CE made their extra point and led 7-6. After receiving the kickoff BSU started another march which was climaxed by a scamper by Lavon Lewis for the winning score.

Dr. Frank G. Dickey, dean of the College of Education, attended a meeting on teacher education and religion financed by the Danforth Organization this week in Pittsburg, Kan.

Dean Dickey is a member of the executive committee which met to select a new director. The meeting was held on Oct. 2nd and 3rd.

Blue Bench Cleared In Villanova Thrashing

Villanova's Main Liners, out-manned and out-gunned in every department, fell before Kentucky's onslaught 28-0 last Saturday night before 24,000 mildly interested fans.

No less than 40 Wildcats got into the game as Coach Blanton Collier cleared the bench in the game size practice session. Villanova coach, Frank Reagan, used 32 of his boys in a vain attempt to find a clicking combination.

Big gun for the home-standing Cats was the Bob Hardy to Howie Schnellenberger pass combination which clicked for two touchdowns in the first half. Schnellenberger led all ground gainers as he grabbed seven Hardy passes for 110 yards. Don Netoski led the Big Blue on the ground as he racked up 38 yards in four carries.

In the first quarter Kentucky, after an exchange of punts, took possession on the Villanova 25 yard line and in four plays scored. The main play of the series was Bob Phillips' 15 yard dance into the end zone. Delmare Hughes' kick was good and the Blue led 7-0.

In the second quarter center Dave Kuhn grabbed a Ron Gorton, Villanova pass on his own 45 and returned it to the Kentucky 45 before stepping out of bounds. From there Hardy took over and in six plays covered the 55 yards to the goal line. End Howie Schnellenberger scored from the two-yard line where he caught a Hardy pass. Hughes' place kick was perfect and the Cats increased their lead 14-0.

Kentucky substitutes played the entire fourth quarter and although they failed to tally they did a fine job of holding Villanova and preserving the whitewash.

Kickbacks

by TOM PRESTON
KERNEL SPORTS EDITOR

TEDDYBEAR Does this word or name catch your fancy? In fact, I wonder if even a score of sports fans really know which UK gridiron lass claims to the nickname, "Teddybear."

The tag is mainly deceptive. It pictures in my mind someone who would freeze on the spot if he had to block Frank D'Agostino, Auburn's fine 203 pound tackle. It reminds me of somebody who would witter into a pool of suppression if he glanced up and saw Joe Childress, last year's leading ground gainer in the SEC, roaring down field toward him. At first, Teddybear may sound like a person who wouldn't have the energy to crawl, much less walk, onto a football field. The name might even be mistaken for someone who desires to hibernate.

Well, it's all the reverse. Teddybear acts like he isn't afraid of man nor beast when he wears his Wildcat uniform. He appears to be a fellow who loves jolting the tar out of a hard running back or knocking an opposing lineman 10 yards into the backfield. Yes sir, Teddybear is one heck of an athlete. He's all-American potential; and he has another season to wake up some of the other sports writers.

A Louisville Male product, this junior commerce major stands 6'1 and weighs 215. He sports number 55 on his jersey. Little more needs to be added except for the fact that he does have another name, Dave Kuhn.

During the latter era of 1951's season and in Kentucky's battles this year, I have made a special effort to observe Dave's performances.

He reminds me of Jay Rodehaver, Harry Ullin, and Doug Mosley all wrapped into one. Granted Kuhn can be a trifle lazy on certain plays, but it's the intestinal fortitude that makes him outstanding. He has a secret knack of deciphering the enemy offense sometimes even before the opposing team really knows what's going on. Kuhn blocks with savagery and tackles with the viciousness of a madman. Honors will be minor this season, no doubt, but watch for a heap of them after the 1956 campaign.

WEDNESDAY night's introduction of FM football presented a couple of pretensions which should be cleared up. First, on the FM field in back of the Student Union a safety hazard is noted. Stakes placed in the red zone for horseshoes offer an unsuspecting player certain injury or even death if he were to fall into one. There should be a covering of some kind for these stakes.

Problem number two concerns the poor lighting on the old practice field. Following opening play in football there were more than numerous complaints dealing with the lighting. Here, though, runs a much larger headache than the stake case. It takes a fair sum of money to erect proper lighting which the FM department probably doesn't have available at this time. So, what is there to do? Should they play more games during the day, reduce the number of games in order that all might play on the FM field, or what? It's something to think about.

Wildcat Send-off Scheduled Today

Suky is sponsoring a send-off for the football team today at 12:05 p.m. at Wildcat Manor. The cheerleaders will lead the yells.

The ten newly elected cheerleaders are Jane Cole, Pat Phelps, Marcie Burman, Tracy Walden, Nancy Haddix, Bobbie Tice, Don McCracken, Carl Eggenspiller, Ken Gowery, and "Red" Calkin.

All ten will be regular cheerleaders this year and there will be no alternates.

Swimming Hopefuls Report To Reece For Workouts

By MARNEY BEARD

Eleven freshmen and seven varsity swimming candidates reported to Coach Algie Reece Tuesday as the University of Kentucky swimming team made preparations to open another season.

The rest of the week will be devoted mainly to filling out forms and applications with no actual workouts scheduled until next week, Coach Reece stated.

Due to schedule conflicts and various other reasons, not all the expected hopefuls showed up Tuesday, as Reece plans on 25 to 30 freshmen candidates alone. If past records can be used as any indication,

Coach Reece plans to devote three to five weeks to physical conditioning before any actual swimming is done by the varsity. However, the main program for the freshmen will consist of training in form and correct strokes.

Seniors Kenneth Glass and Gene Lewis are expected to mould the nucleus of this year's team, along with service returnee George King and freshman William Eaton, who won the Kentucky High School backstroke championship as an eighth grader, but attended high school in another state.

Roy Boorman and Dick Bertelson will be added to this list when they become eligible the second semester.

LM Meeting Slated

There will be a meeting at five o'clock Monday afternoon, October 10, in the women's gym for all persons who have signed up, or who are interested in playing in intramural golf mixed doubles tournament. Pairings and seedings will be arranged at the meeting.

All persons who have first round matches to play in golf, tennis, croquet and horseshoe singles are required to have those matches played by Tuesday, October 11.

Cats Face Auburn In 'Must' Tilt

Undefeated Plainsmen
Construct Tight Net
Against Foe's Passes

By BILL HENRY

Unbeaten Auburn, riding a string of nine consecutive victories, meet once beaten Kentucky in a make or break contest for both clubs tomorrow in the SEC game-of-the-day.

Auburn's mighty Plainsmen, still smarting from last year's 21-14 defeat, will call on their 1-2 running combination of Bob James and Joe Childress in an attempt to combat UK's aerial bombardment. Childress has been picked on practically everyone's pre-season all-American at the fullback slot and so far is living up to his advanced billing.

Bob James is the big surprise of the Auburn team this year. The senior left-half has averaged 8.9 yards a try with his 27 attempts going for 253 yards. Bob is not only the leading Tiger ground gainer but at the present leads the SEC in total rushing yardage.

Childress, the SEC rushing leader in 1954, with 836 yards, is off and romping again. In Auburn's first two tilts against Chattanooga and Florida, the demon fullback has amassed 130 yards. Although this seems below par it might be pointed out that in the Tiger's first two games last year, he had only 119 yards.

Last season's sensational passing game of Bobby Freeman to all-American end, Jim Pyburn, is gone but the James-Childress running game has more than made up for it.

Although few passes have been thrown, the accuracy has been outstanding. Howell Tubbs, junior quarterback, has completed five of six tosses good for 45 yards. Bill Burbank has completed two for two for 47 yards, and sophomore, Jimmy Cook, has connected on three of ten for 32 yards.

In the Auburn-Kentucky game last year there were 25 passes thrown with 15 of them being completed. This might indicate that this year's contest just might well be a throwing affair also, especially since not too much is known about the Tiger's passing game.

Of course, in week long drills the Plainsmen have been working to stop UK's passing performance of Bob Hardy to Howie Schellenberger. Also, while preping their pass defense, they have been sharpening their own throwing game.

In the two games thus far the Plainsmen's stout line has limited its opponents to an average of only 105.5 yards per game rushing and a mere average of 27.5 yards by the airwaves.

Tomorrow's game will be in Auburn's front yard, so to speak, as Coach Ralph Jordan takes his team to Birmingham twice an-
